AMA PRO RACING MANAGING MEMBERS
DAVID ATLAS

David Atlas is the Chief Operating Officer and one of three Managing Members of AMA Pro Racing since 2008. A longtime motorcycle racer and collector, Atlas runs the day-to-day operation of AMA Pro Racing. Trained as a mechanical engineer and businessman, Atlas holds mechanical engineering and law degrees from the Cooper Union School of Engineering and Harvard Law School. Atlas began as a propulsion system design engineer for the Navy Department in Washington, DC; following law school, he began a 33-year career in professional motorsports. Atlas has worked with many of the leading people and organizations in the business, including Roger Penske, Chip Ganassi, Emerson Fittipaldi, the IROC Series and GRAND-AM.

Atlas himself began racing as a 14-year-old and competed for more than a decade at West Palm Beach and AHRMA/Daytona in the 350cc and 500cc two-stroke classes. Those years led to an extensive, 27-piece collection of factory road racing motorcycles.

CHRISTY (CHRIS) F. HARRIS

Chris Harris is a practicing attorney by profession and has been a lifelong motorsports enthusiast and participant. Harris has served on the Board of International Speedway Corporation since 1984, was a founding member of Grand American Road Racing Association, LLC, and is the newest addition to the Managing Members' Board of AMA Pro Racing.

Harris was a competitive autocross and rally participant while a member and past President of Suncoast region, Porsche Club of America. A motorcycle rider for 30 years, he was sidelined by a medical setback in 1997, but his enthusiasm for motorcycle competition of all kinds has never wavered and he welcomes the challenge of participating in the management and improvement of AMA Pro Racing in 2011 and beyond. With a rich personal and family history of Marine Corps service, Harris takes pride in meeting a challenge.

TOM BLEDSOE

Daytona Beach native Tom Bledsoe has been an integral member of the NASCAR group of companies since 1990. As one of AMA Pro Racing's three Managing Members, Bledsoe also serves as the President of GRAND-AM Road Racing. Prior to his promotion to President in April 2010, Bledsoe was COO and acting President for GRAND-AM; prior to that, he served as Vice-President of Finance for GRAND-AM and Treasurer for GRAND-AM's parent company, NASCAR. A longtime motorcycle owner and enthusiast, Bledsoe brings a wealth of motorcycle, motorsport, and fiscal knowledge to AMA Pro Racing, and his careful guidance plays an important role in its operation.

AMA PRO RACING COMMUNICATIONS STAFF

AMA Pro Racing's Communications staff is based at the organization's headquarters in Daytona Beach, Fla. Members of the staff are on-hand at each AMA Pro Road Racing event and are also available at any other time to assist the media with coverage of AMA Pro Road Racing events and related news.

AMA Pro Road Racing Overview

AMA Pro Road Racing is the premier motorcycle road racing series in North America and is universally regarded as one of the most competitive road racing organizations in the world. The 2012 schedule consists of eleven rounds of competition on the country's finest road courses.

The Series is comprised of four production-based classes: AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike, AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike, AMA Pro Motorcycle-Superstore.com SuperSport and the AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 Series. The performance characteristics of the motorcycles raced in each division are configured with the intent of providing ascending platforms for riders to compete and hone their skills as they climb the ladder to the premiere AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike division.

National Guard SuperBike continues a motorcycle racing legend that began in 1976 and features fast, powerful, large-displacement motorcycles based on a rule set that allows for a variety of performance modifications. Traditionally considered a 1000cc class, the rule structure has been updated to provide a platform for additional big-bore motorcycles to compete within the same performance envelope. Eight different brands were represented on the SuperBike grids in 2011: Yamaha, Suzuki, Kawasaki, Honda, BMW, Buell, EBR and KTM.

The carefully designed rule package for GoPro Daytona SportBike provides a platform for motorcycles with different engine configurations to compete on even ground and since the class debuted in 2009, it has become known for extremely close racing and a great depth of field. Due to the parity in performance, it is not uncommon to see packs of 10 motorcycles from five or more different brands battling for the lead in every turn. GoPro Daytona SportBike is also the featured class in America's premier motorcycle endurance road race, the Daytona 200.

Motorcycle-Superstore.com SuperSport is the proving ground for AMA Pro's up-and-coming motorcycle talent. The rules allow riders to select from the same diverse set of machines that are eligible for competition in Daytona SportBike but with fewer modifications. The events on the season's schedule are divided into two divisions, East and West. To keep travel and entry costs down for privateers, a rider only gains points toward a divisional championship for finishing positions they achieve in their declared division. At the end of the year, the highest-scoring divisional champion is crowned as the overall SuperSport National Champion. A special award highlighting the younger SuperSport riders is given to the highest-points-scoring 16- to 21-year-old rider.

The AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 Series made its debut halfway through the 2010 season, bringing with it the return of one of the most evocative names in motorcycling: Harley-Davidson. Using the Harley-Davidson XR1200 modified with a specially-prepared parts-and-accessories kit from famed motorcycle performance tuner Vance & Hines, riders can race the big twins on the national stage in a cost-contained manner that emphasizes rider skill.

On a typical event weekend, each of AMA Pro Road Racing's three sport-performance classes, AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike, AMA Pro Go Pro Daytona SportBike and AMA Pro Motorcycle-Superstore.com SuperSport, have their first practice and basic qualifying sessions on Friday afternoon. Grids are set following Saturday morning's final qualifying session, and each class is featured in sprint races on both Saturday and Sunday afternoons. The weekend schedule for the AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 Series is similar; The big Harley-Davidson twins have just one practice session and one qualifying session on Saturday afternoon before battling it out in a single sprint race on Sunday afternoon.

In addition to watching the thrilling on-track action, fans are invited into the AMA Pro Road Racing paddock and garage areas to meet the stars of the sport and to watch as the crew chiefs and mechanics work on the machines.

Most AMA Pro Road Racing events feature grid walks during opening ceremonies before the races on Saturday and Sunday. Fans can casually stroll on the surface of some of America's finest race tracks while getting autographs, talking with riders and viewing race-prepped motorcycles positioned along the pit wall.

Track walks are also offered at select venues on the schedule, giving fans an opportunity to get up close and personal with AMA Pro riders as they walk the circuit following a day of competition. Event promoters further add to the experience by providing additional options for the fan agenda, including fan parties, vendor areas, manufacturer demo rides, motocross and BMX stunt exhibitions, street stunt riders, live music, fireworks and more.

THE HISTORY OF AMA PRO ROAD RACING

When it was founded in 1924, the AMA had an instant commitment to motorcycle competition, hosting two events that year in advance of the first full year of racing in 1925. In the early years, the premier style of racing in the U.S. was designated Class A, a formula that allowed manufacturers to build exotic one-off racing machines. Under this formula, factory teams spent large sums on racebike development and hired top riders like Jim Davis and Joe Petrali to claim championships. In the early 1930s, though, these expensive factory teams were scaled back as a result of the Depression. To combat this trend, in late 1933 the AMA Competition Committee created Class C, which called for the use of 45 c.i. (750cc) side-valve and 500cc overhead-valve machines based on stock production components. Only minor modifications were allowed, and fuel was limited to pump gas only.

In the late 1970s, road racing was given separate championship status by the AMA, and production-based Superbike racing evolved into the premier class. AMA Pro SuperBike was created in 1976 to provide a level playing field for professional racing teams and a means for motorcycle manufacturers to showcase their sport-performance, production-based models. From 1978 to 1994, U.S. riders conquered the world of grand-prix road racing, winning thirteen 500cc titles from 1978 to 1993. Now called AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike, the class remains the proving ground for both machines and riders.

ABOUT THE AMERICAN MOTORCYCLIST ASSOCIATION (AMA)

The American Motorcycle Association (AMA), located in Pickerington, Ohio, is the world's premier member-driven motorcycling organization whose mission is to promote the motorcycling lifestyle and protect the future of motorcycling. From the street to the track to the trail, millions of Americans enjoy motorcycling. Some ride to work every day. Others ride for pleasure on weekends. Many ride off-road, or journey to places near and far. Still more seek the thrill of competition.

Since 1924, the AMA has protected the future of motorcycling and promoted the motorcycle lifestyle. AMA members come from all walks of life, and they navigate many different routes on their journey to the same destination: freedom on two wheels. As the world's largest motorcycling organization, the AMA advocates for motorcyclists' interests in the halls of local, state and federal government, the committees of international governing organizations, and the court of public opinion.

Through member clubs, promoters and partners, the AMA sanctions more motorsports competition and motorcycle recreational events than any other organization in the world. Through its Motorcycle Hall of Fame, the AMA preserves the heritage of motorcycling for future generations. AMA members receive money saving discounts from dozens of well-known suppliers of motorcycle services, gear and apparel, bike rental, transport, hotel stays and more. The AMA is everything motorcycle.

ABOUT AMA PRO RACING

In 2008, the American Motorcycle Association announced the sale of certain of its professional racing properties to AMA Pro Racing, based in Daytona Beach, Florida. The move was brought about by the need for the association to place the management of professional racing in the hands of a well-resourced motorsports entertainment company. The rules packages introduced by AMA Pro in 2009 have been subtly refined to provide technical stability and rules consistency, which has shifted the focus of the sport to the compelling battles on the track among a magnificent group of athletes.

AMA Pro NATIONAL GUARD SUPERBIKE

AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike continues a motorcycle racing legend that began in 1976 and features fast, powerful large-displacement motorcycles based on a rule set that allows for a variety of performance modifications. Traditionally considered a 1000cc class, the rule structure has been updated to provide a platform for additional big-bore motorcycles to compete within the same performance envelope. National Guard SuperBikes all have direct roots in production street bikes and each eligible model represents the most powerful motorcycle available from top manufacturers such as Yamaha, Suzuki, Kawasaki, Honda, BMW, Buell, EBR and KTM.

National Guard SuperBikes all have at least 1000cc in engine displacement from a variety of twin and multi-cylinder powerplants. Four-cylinder, four-stroke machines have a minimum post-race weight of 370 pounds and are limited to 1000cc engines, such as the Suzuki GSX-R1000 and Yamaha R1. Two-cylinder, four-stroke machines must tip the scales at a minimum post-race weight of 370 pounds and cannot exceed 1200cc displacement engines, such as the EBR 1190RS, KTM RC8R and Ducati 1098R.

The real proof of the power of the National Guard SuperBikes becomes evident when they hit the track, where top speeds in excess of 190 mph are not uncommon. Keeping that type of power on the track is critical, and AMA Pro Road Racing's spec-tire partner Dunlop has a proven record of championship-caliber racing performance and a storied history within the paddock.

AMA Pro NATIONAL GUARD SUPERBIKE — QUICK FACTS

Horsepower: 200 hp
 Minimum Weights: 370 lbs: 4-Cylinder/4-Stroke 1000cc engines; 370 lbs: 2-Cylinder/4-Stroke engines up to 1200cc
 Top Speed: Over 190 MPH
 0-60 MPH: Under 3 seconds
 ¼ Mile Acceleration: Low 9 seconds
 Tires: Dunlop KR106 (Front: 125/80R-17) and KR108 (195/65R-17)
 Race Lengths: 50-mile sprints
 Eligible Bikes: Aprilia RSV1000R/RSV4 R/RSV4 Factory, BMW S1000RR, Buell 1125R/1125RR, Ducati 1098R/1098S, EBR 1190RS, Honda CBR1000RR/CBR1000RR ABS, Kawasaki ZX-10, KTM RC8R, Suzuki GSX-R1000, Yamaha R1

Front wheel size is 17 by 3.5 inches and the rear wheel size is 17 by 6 inches for all machines. The use of carbon fiber or carbon-composite material for wheels or brake components is not allowed and titanium brake discs are also outlawed. Cost savings for the teams are great, and the SuperBikes can still stop on a dime.

Since the 2009 season, Sunoco has fueled the outstanding competition found at AMA Pro Road Racing events with Sunoco 260 GTX, a premium unleaded racing fuel designed to meet the performance needs of the Series.

As impressive as the machines are in National Guard SuperBike, it is the all-star lineup of riders that truly put on the show. Two-time defending SuperBike Champion Josh Hayes will be joined by teammate Josh Herrin in 2012 as the Daytona SportBike standout steps up to the SuperBike division to battle it out with America's finest racing talent, including Blake Young, Ben Bostrom, Roger Hayden, Larry Pegram, Steve Rapp, Geoff May and more.

Success on the racetrack has always been an important element of motorcycle marketing, and AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike provides an exciting, competitive environment that enables the many motorcycle manufacturers to showcase their latest models on a level playing field and in front of a loyal, knowledgeable fan base — on some of the best racetracks in the USA.

AMA Pro GoPro DAYTONA SPORTBIKE

Created in 2009, AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike was envisioned as a class in which a variety of brands and configurations could compete on a level playing field, putting the emphasis on rider talent. Since that very competitive first season, the class has exploded and provides some of the best racing seen anywhere in the world — packs of 10 or more ferociously-battling bikes are almost expected.

Like National Guard SuperBikes, GoPro Daytona SportBikes are race-tuned descendants of some of today's top high-performance production motorcycles. Eligible bikes in Daytona SportBike include the Yamaha YZF-R6, Suzuki GSX-R600, Honda CBR600RR, Kawasaki Ninja ZX-6R, Buell 1125R, Aprilia RSV1000R, Ducati 848, Triumph Daytona 675 and the KTM 990 Super Duke. Power comes from a variety of four-stroke, multi-cylinder modified production engines and minimum bike weights range from 355 to 380 lbs., depending on engine configuration and number of cylinders.

AMA PRO GoPRO DAYTONA SPORTBIKE — QUICK FACTS

Engine Displacement: 600cc — 675cc — 848cc — 990cc — 1000cc — 1125cc

Horsepower: 120 hp to 140 hp

Minimum Weights: 4 cylinders — 355 lbs.; 3 cylinders — 360 lbs.; 2 cylinders — 380 lbs.

Top Speed: 170 MPH

0-60 MPH: 3 seconds

¼ Mile Acceleration: 10 seconds

Tires: Dunlop SportMax GPA Front (120/70R-17) and Rear (190/55ZR-17)

Race Lengths: 50-mile sprints. The season-opening Daytona 200 is 57 laps for 200 miles.

GoPro DAYTONA SPORTBIKE
 Be a HERO.

Engine rules mandate primarily stock parts with minimal modifications and tuning and — like AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike — stock transmissions, but that doesn't mean GoPro Daytona SportBikes are just out for a weekend cruise, often reaching top speeds in excess of 175 mph. As in all AMA Pro Road Racing classes, Dunlop provides the series-standard racing tires for GoPro Daytona SportBike and competitors must use original equipment wheels. Brake components may be replaced with aftermarket items, but the use of carbon fiber, carbon composite or titanium materials for brake discs is not allowed. Sunoco 260GTX premium racing fuel is the exclusive standard for all of AMA Pro Road Racing.

The variety offered by AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike rules doesn't end with the motorcycles — there's also a wide range of age and experience found among class riders. As competitors graduate from AMA Pro Motorcycle-Superstore.com SuperSport to Daytona SportBike, they join an impressive field of international standouts, riders from AMA Pro SuperBike and many other genres of motorcycle racing, in events that include the historic Daytona 200.

This renowned event traces its history to 1937, when the inaugural race was run on the sands of Daytona Beach. In 1961, the event became synonymous with Daytona International Speedway and has since seen many great names in motorcycling history win the storied event. Run at the culmination of Daytona Bike Week on Saturday afternoon, the 200-mile race is the only endurance race on the AMA Pro Road Racing schedule, but the parity in performance combined with the depth of field found in the AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike division all but guarantees a photo finish.

AMA Pro MOTORCYCLE-SUPERSTORE.COM SUPERSPORT

AMA Pro Motorcycle-Superstore.com SuperSport is AMA Pro Road Racing's showcase of America's future motorcycle racing stars today and the class often puts on some of the most exciting racing action at AMA Pro Road Racing events. This proving ground class is designed for up-and-coming riders to compete on 600cc sport bikes that are only minimally modified from what can be found at a Suzuki, Yamaha, Kawasaki, Honda or other motorcycle dealership.

The same motorcycles that are featured in the AMA Pro Daytona SportBike division are eligible in SuperSport and although they are allowed less modifications, the top speeds for competing bikes still reach in excess of 160 mph. The list includes the Yamaha YZF-R6, Suzuki GSX-R600, Honda CBR600RR, Kawasaki Ninja ZX-6R and similar sport bikes.

As in all AMA Pro Road Racing classes, Dunlop and its proven racing tires are the series-standard application in SuperSport and competitors must use original equipment wheels and braking systems, with alternate brake pads or discs the only change allowed.

SuperSport is divided into East and West Divisional Championships in order to control travel and entry costs for privateer riders. Riders can compete in any (or all) of the SuperSport races, but can only score points in their designated division, which each rider chooses at the beginning of the season.

Two of the West Division events will be designated as single events—rounds that, due to the format of those specific race weekends, will feature only one SuperSport race. To compensate, a point will be awarded for the fastest lap of the race and championship points will also be awarded for each rider's final grid position, thus providing competitors with the opportunity to score 63 points, as if it were a regular two-race event.

The overall AMA Pro SuperSport Champion will be the divisional champion who amasses the most points in their respective division and will be awarded the coveted National No. 1 Plate. Additionally, a special award will be presented to the highest-scoring 16- to 21-year-old rider.

Success in SuperSport also means successful graduation from the class. Riders who have won two Divisional or National SuperSport Championships are no longer eligible to participate in the SuperSport division. Any overall National Championship along with the qualifying Divisional Championship earned in the same season will be counted as one.

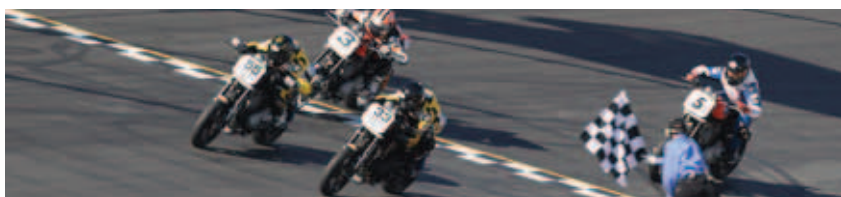

The AMA Pro SuperSport class was designed to be a great place for young riders to hone their skills as they prepare to advance up the ladder of professional road racing. Many of the riders that have ascended to the ranks of Daytona SportBike and National Guard SuperBike show promise right away, showing that they have gained the competitive edge needed to compete as they ascend the ranks.

AMA PRO VANCE & HINES XR1200 SERIES

The AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 Series, which was added to the AMA Pro Road Racing class structure at the Road America round of the 2010 season, features Harley-Davidson XR1200s modified with a specially-prepared parts-and-accessories kit from famed motorcycle performance tuner Vance & Hines. This new addition to the AMA Pro Road Racing event weekends harkens back to the AMA Harley-Davidson 883 class, in which a number of today's riders got their start.

Despite the minor modifications to the machines, the rules have been designed to keep the machines as evenly matched as possible by strictly limiting the technical specifications of the big twin, which are showcased in a single-race format during each AMA Pro Road Racing event weekend except for the Red Bull U.S. Grand Prix at Mazda Raceway Laguna Seca. In 2011, the XR1200 Series was invited to compete alongside the stars of MotoGP as part of the Red Bull Indianapolis GP at Indianapolis Motor Speedway and, following a spectacular doubleheader weekend, AMA Pro Road Racing and the stars of the XR1200 Series are excited to return in 2012.

AMA PRO VANCE & HINES XR1200 SERIES — QUICK FACTS

Engine Displacement: 1200cc

Horsepower: 85 hp

Minimum Weights: 515 lbs.

Top Speed: 140 MPH

0-60 MPH: 3.8 seconds

¼ Mile Acceleration: 12 seconds

Tires: Dunlop SportMax GPA Front (120/70R-17) and Rear (190/55ZR-17)

Race Lengths: 25-mile sprints

Eligible Bikes: Harley-Davidson XR1200

The XR1200 Series produced fast, intense and competitive racing at each round during the 2011 season. Bruce Rossmeyer's Daytona Racing/GEICO/RMR's Chris Fillmore was engaged in a season-long battle with Parts Unlimited rider Steve Rapp and the 2011 championship came down to the season finale at New Jersey Motorsports Park. Fillmore led the Sunday final event flag-to-flag on the way to his fifth win of the season and the coveted No. 1 Plate.

Following the 2011 season, AMA Pro Racing announced the introduction of the XR Showdown, a $60,000 year-end points fund for which the riders in the Vance & Hines XR1200 Series will be competing. The XR Showdown, which is supported by Vance & Hines and the Harley-Davidson Motor Company, will be offered in addition to the $10,000 purse plus posted contingency available each weekend, meaning that well over $100,000 will be up for grabs over the course of the season.

The XR Showdown will begin when there are five races remaining on the 2012 schedule. The top 10 riders in the XR1200 Series point standings at that time will be eligible for XR Showdown points, which will be paid for each of the five remaining events on the schedule. The rider with the most XR Showdown points at the end will take home $30,000 in prize money, with the remaining $30,000 in the points fund to be paid out to second through 10th in the final XR Showdown point standings.

The inclusion of the AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 Series makes AMA Pro Road Racing one of the most cost-effective platforms for racing on the national stage. During the 2011 season, a total of 22 Harley-Davidson dealerships supported XR1200 Series teams and riders through sponsorship. The continuing support from the strong network of Harley-Davidson dealers across the country ensures that thousands of new fans from the Harley-Davidson street riding community will get to experience the non-stop action of AMA Pro Road Racing in 2012.

CLASS STRUCTURE AND CHAMPIONSHIP POINTS

The entrant-based AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike and GoPro Daytona SportBike divisions compete for rider, team and manufacturer championships. Both classes will have timed qualifying sessions to determine starting grids and unless otherwise noted will run two 50-mile races per weekend, one Saturday and one Sunday. Manufacturer points will be awarded to each participating manufacturer for its highest-placing finisher in each race. Team points will be awarded to each entrant for its highest-placing finisher in each race.

SuperSport and the Vance & Hines XR1200 Series will also have timed qualifying sessions, but these two rider-based classes will be solely focused on competing for the rider championship and the coveted number one plate that comes along with it. Aside from the declared single-race weekends, SuperSport will run two 35-mile races, one Saturday and one Sunday. The big twins in the Vance & Hines XR1200 Series are showcased in one 25-mile race per weekend.

During race sessions, back-up bikes may be used in all four AMA Pro Road Racing classes if the race leader has not yet completed two laps. Points for all championships and in all classes will be awarded to the top 20 finishers in each race. Rider championships will award single bonus points for pole position (one point) and for most laps led (one point). Points will be scored as per the following schedule:

2.	25	12.	9
3.	21	13.	8
4.	18	14.	7
5.	16	15.	6
6.	15	16.	5
7.	14	17.	4
8.	13	18.	3
9.	12	19.	2

SuperSport will have two regional divisions, East and West. Rider regional declarations must be made prior to a rider's first race in the class. Riders can participate in any and all SuperSport races but can only score points in their declared division. The SuperSport National Champion will be the rider who amasses the highest number of points in their respective division. The rising stars in SuperSport are also eligible for the Young Gun Award, a special award given to the rider between the ages of 16 and 21 with the most points at the end of the season. To balance out the points-paying opportunities between the East and West divisions in SuperSport, at single-race events a single point will be awarded for the fastest lap of the race and points will also be paid out for final grid positions using the same 20-position point scale used for race sessions in order to provide the opportunity to score 63 points, as if it were a two-race event. The extra points for pole position and most laps led will be awarded for race sessions only.

Riders in the Vance & Hines XR1200 Series will also be vying for a $60,000 year-end points fund as part of the XR Showdown. The XR Showdown will begin when there are five races remaining on the 2012 schedule. The top ten riders in the XR1200 point standings at that time will be eligible for XR Showdown points, which will be paid for each of the five remaining events on the schedule. The rider with the most XR Showdown points at the end of the season will take home $30,000 in prize money. The remaining $30,000 in the points fund to be paid out to second through 10th in the final XR Showdown point standings.

Riders must complete a minimum of 50% of the race laps run in order to receive championship points. Riders will not be credited for partial laps; only completed laps will count towards the minimum requirement. However, riders will receive purse money for their earned grid positions if there are purse-paying positions beyond the number of riders listed in the results.

In the event that there is a tie in the point standings, that tie will be broken based on the number of wins in the series. If that does not break a tie, the number of second-place finishes will be compared, then thirds, fourths, etc. until the tie is broken. If a tie remains, the best finish in the last race will determine the champion. Ties will be broken as they occur.

PENALTIES

The pit road speed limit is 50 MPH. This is not to be exceeded in any session or race. Fines are levied during practice and qualifying sessions; either ride-through penalties or time penalties, in which seconds are added to the overall race time of offending riders, are assessed during races.

Each race's standing start is monitored by both video and human observation. If a rider gains a competitive advantage by jumping a start, a time penalty of five seconds or a ride-through penalty will be assessed.

Ride-through penalties are assessed for a variety of additional reasons: pit-stop procedure penalties such as personnel and equipment violations, improper refueling and other safety and procedural rule infractions.

More serious penalties may also be given for violations that jeopardize the safety of others. Celebratory activity, including doing a burnout, is permitted only after the checkered flag of a race final and only in a safe location away from spectators, participants and others that may be injured in the event of flying debris or mechanical failure. Additionally, any rider, participant or team that intentionally engages in an activity with the consequence negatively impacting a competitor's performance, including avoidable contact, may be subject to harsher penalties.

In order to keep costs down for the paddock as a whole, AMA Pro Racing has instituted a policy intended to prevent riders from gaining a competitive advantage by testing at facilities on the AMA Pro Road Racing schedule within 30 days of scheduled events. The rule applies to riders which meet certain criteria, such as being in the top 15 in the point standings. Any rider that meets the criteria and violates the rule will be gridded at the back of the grid. If there is more than one rider that violates the rule, the rider with the most points will start further back.

FLAGS

The following flags are used in AMA Pro Road Racing:

GREEN	Start of race or clear track conditions. Green lights are also used.
CHECKERED	End of race, practice or qualifying session.
WHITE (WAVING)	Final lap of race.
YELLOW	Stationary: Potentially hazardous situation on track, proceed with caution, passing allowed. Yellow lights are also used. Waving: Serious hazardous situation on track, proceed with caution, passing not allowed. Flashing yellow lights could also be used.
BLUE	Indicates to a rider that they are about to be overtaken or lapped. These riders must allow the overtaking rider(s) to safely pass at the earliest opportunity.
BLACK	Rider needs to exit race track. Usually accompanied by a number board.
BLACK WITH ORANGE CIRCLE	Rider has been assessed a ride-through penalty. Usually accompanied by a number board.
RED	Displayed on track indicates all riders must slow and go to the pits. Also indicates pit-lane exit is closed when displayed at pit out. Red lights could also be used.
YELLOW FLAG/RED STRIPES	Indicates debris, fluid or a potentially hazardous situation on track.
STATIONARY WHITE FLAG WITH RED CROSS	Safety vehicle on course.
ROLLED UP WHITE AND GREEN FLAGS	When crossed, indicates 1/2 total race distance.

COMMUNICATIONS INFORMATION

PRESS RELEASES

AMA Pro Racing issues press releases regarding the organization as well as AMA Pro Road Racing. The releases, which include the latest series news as well as practice, qualifying and race information during race weekends, are distributed in the media center and via email. Media members interested in receiving AMA Pro Press Releases can register at www.amapracing.com/signup.

WEBSITE FEATURES AND NEWSLETTERS

In addition to official series press releases, AMA Pro Racing also produces website-only content on a daily basis during the week. Topics include rider spotlights focused on building the personality of riders in the AMA Pro paddock, tech discussions offering up guidance on motorcycle maintenance and safety techniques, and product features, which highlight a product offered by one of AMA Pro Racing's proud contingency partners. Each Saturday, AMA Pro Racing distributes a newsletter with links to the daily features posted during the previous week. Media members interested in receiving AMA Pro Newsletters can register at www.amapracing.com/signup.

SOCIAL MEDIA INITIATIVES

AMA Pro Racing is focused on expanding its social media initiatives over the course of the 2012 season. All of the official content featured on the AMA Pro Racing website is posted to the official AMA Pro Road Racing Facebook and Twitter pages, and two additional social features are cross-linked from our official social media outlets. On Mondays, AMA Pro holds a caption contest on Facebook with the goal of expanding our reach by prompting fans to ask their friends to Like AMA Pro Racing so that they can vote. Contest winners are given gift cards and other products from our official and contingency partners. Each Friday, AMA Pro features a Viral Video clip of AMA Pro Road Racing action on the official YouTube channel and links are posted on both Facebook and Twitter. On race weekends, our official Twitter account is used to provide fans with the latest news and information from the racetrack. Please use the following links to follow us on the mainstream social networks:

MEDIA SITE

The AMA Pro Racing Media Site features links to the latest series news and web content, access to high resolution head shots and photos from each practice, qualifying and race session, series and class logos in vector format, downloadable Series Media Guides and links to results agate from each race session. Media members are encouraged to visit this one-stop shop for AMA Pro Racing news and information by signing up and logging in at <http://media.amapracing.com/media>.

RESULTS AND HISTORICAL DATA WEBSITE

Official results and detailed Timing & Scoring reports on every AMA Pro Road Racing session are immediately uploaded to the AMA Pro Racing Results and Historical Data Website, where they can often be accessed before they are even available in the Media Center. This online portal, which also hosts archived results and standings PDFs from each round of competition since the 2004 season, is available at <http://results.amapracing.com>.

LIVE TIMING WEBSITE AND STREAMING PRESS CONFERENCES

AMA Pro Racing's proprietary Live Timing system was developed in-house at the beginning of the 2011 season. During each session of competition, users can follow along with the racing action while also viewing rider headshots, bios and detailed laptime data for every rider on the circuit. The Live Timing Website also displays real-time commentary in the form of posts from the official Twitter feed. Beginning in 2012, press conferences will be streamed via the Live Timing Website so that fans at home can hear about the action directly from the riders the minute that they get off the track. The Live Timing Website is available year-round at <http://live.amapracing.com/tr>.

MOBILE APPS AND MOBILE WEBSITE

In addition to developing an in-house Live Timing Website, AMA Pro Racing also publishes Mobile Apps for iPhone and Android users. The Lite App is free on both platforms and features basic Live Timing data. The Pro App costs just 99 cents and features season and event schedules, session results, point standings, links to recent news stories and an expanded Live Timing page, including rider headshots, bio information and detailed laptime data. AMA Pro's iPhone apps are available in the iTunes store, while Android users should head for the Android Market. All web-enabled mobile visitors to AMA Pro Racing's website are redirected to the AMA Pro Racing mobile-friendly website, where a quick click on either Road Racing or Flat Track directs fans to a wealth of easy-to-navigate information, such as season schedules and ticket links, news teasers, mobile app descriptions and links, plus Twitter integration and Facebook "Like" features.

MEDIA RELATIONS INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Media members wishing to cover AMA Pro Road Racing events must obtain media credentials from the individual race tracks holding the events. Requests for credentials should be submitted by mail to the track public relations director or credentials coordinator at least two weeks prior to the event. Many tracks do not honor credential requests that are submitted by fax or email. Credential contacts can be found in the track information section of this media guide.

MEDIA HARD CARDS

AMA Pro Racing offers season-long hard cards to media covering the majority of races, granting the hard card holder open access to most AMA Pro Road Racing and AMA Pro Flat Track events during the current season. Media Hard Card holders should still contact each individual event promoter in advance to ensure that they have met any additional requirements the promoter may have and to request media center access and parking.

All AMA Pro Racing Media Hard Card requests must be printed on company letterhead and submitted by a sports editor or sports director at least 15 days prior to the first event to which the applicant would like to attend. Requests should include recent copies of the publication and must state the name(s) of those covering and their specific duties and/or titles (writers/photographers, etc.). Please submit all requests for AMA Pro Racing Media Hard Cards via email to communications@amapracing.com or mail to:

AMA Pro Racing
 Attn: Credential Department
 525 Fentress Blvd., Ste. B
 Daytona Beach, FL 32114

If you have any further questions, please contact the AMA Pro Racing membership department at 386-492-1014.

PIT LANE ACCESS

Members of the media are welcome in the paddock, garage and pit areas during AMA Pro Road Racing events. However, some guidelines must be followed when in the pits:

- Cut-off pants and open-toe shoes are not permitted in the pit area, and shirts must have sleeves and a collar
- All media in the pits must obey the instructions of AMA Pro Racing officials
- Only the official AMA Pro Racing photographer and SPEED videographers will be allowed over the pit wall

MEDIA CENTER DISTRIBUTION

During each race weekend, the AMA Pro Racing Communications staff distributes printed material in the media center. Among those items distributed are entry lists, press releases, time sheets, statistical advances and other statistic pieces, weekend event and press conference schedules, point standings and more. If there is something you would like to see, please let the staff know. Teams are also encouraged to print and distribute their releases and stat sheets via the media center distribution bins.

PRESS CONFERENCES

Following qualifying and race sessions, the AMA Pro Racing Communications staff will bring the top participants to the media center for interviews. Partner press conferences and team announcements may also be conducted; a press conference schedule will be available in the media center. Team PR representatives interested in conducting a press conference should contact the AMA Pro Racing Communications staff.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Members of the media are permitted to take photographs of on-track action and within the AMA Pro Road Racing paddock and garages at all times, but please remember that no media members are allowed over the pit wall during event weekends. High-resolution photography from each AMA Pro Road Racing event can also be downloaded from the AMA Pro Racing Media Site. These photographs, and all other photographs taken at AMA Pro Road Racing events, are the sole property of AMA Pro Racing and can only be used for non-commercial purposes, which includes media coverage of the series in print and online news stories and editorials. Commercial usage requires the prior, written approval of AMA Pro Racing.

VIDEO

Members of the media are permitted to shoot video in the AMA Pro Road Racing paddock and garages at all times, as well as on-track action of any practice or qualifying session; however, the filming of on-track action during race sessions is strictly prohibited and anyone observed filming during a race session may be required to delete the footage. Please remember that no media members are allowed over the pit wall during event weekends.

SERIES EDITORIAL STYLE GUIDE

AMA Pro RACING

AMA Pro Racing is the professional motorcycle racing sanctioning body for a variety of motorcycle disciplines and is based in Daytona Beach, Fla. All written correspondence or materials should use the full name - AMA Pro Racing — in first reference or mention in all written materials. The acceptable secondary reference is AMA Pro. AMA by itself should never be used in describing AMA Pro Racing, as AMA refers to the American Motorcyclist Association, the member-driven motorcycling organization based in Pickerington, Ohio.

AMA Pro should also be used in all first references or mentions when naming the various racing divisions within the organization. Examples: AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike, AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike, etc.

AMA Pro ROAD RACING

AMA Pro Road Racing collectively describes the four road racing championships sanctioned by AMA Pro Racing. There is no acceptable second or short reference. The word "Championship" may be added to the end, but only when describing the collective set of events that make up a season. Try to avoid using "series" or similar words after AMA Pro Road Racing but if such words have to be used for clarity, they should be not be capitalized.

AMA Pro NATIONAL GUARD SUPERBIKE

AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike is the official name of the class and should be spelled as it appears here in all primary instances. National Guard is two words with a capital "N" and a capital "G." SuperBike is one word with initial capitalization and a capital "B." National Guard SuperBike is the primary short and secondary reference. If numerous mentions of the class are made, simply AMA Pro SuperBike may be used deep within a document as a third reference, but never before the previous two references are used at least once each. The word "Championship" may be added to the end of the class name, but only when describing the collective set of events that make up a season.

AMA Pro GoPro DAYTONA SPORTBIKE

AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike is the official name of the class and should be spelled as it appears here in all primary instances. GoPro is one word with a capital "G" and a capital "P." Daytona SportBike should be two words with initial capitalization and a capital "B." Daytona and SportBike should always be used together. SportBike by itself should never be used. GoPro Daytona SportBike is the primary and short second reference. If numerous mentions of the class are made, simply AMA Pro Daytona SportBike may be used deep within a document as a third reference, but never before the previous two references are used at least once each. The word "Championship" may be added to the end of the class name, but only when describing the collective set of events that make up a season.

AMA Pro MOTORCYCLE-SUPERSTORE.COM SUPERSPORT

AMA Pro Motorcycle-Superstore.com SuperSport is the official name of the class and should be spelled as it appears here in all primary instances. SuperSport should be one word with each "S" capitalized, preceded by AMA Pro Motorcycle-Superstore.com. Motorcycle-Superstore.com SuperSport is the primary short and secondary reference. If numerous mentions of the class are made, simply SuperSport may be used deep within a document as a third reference, but never before the previous two references are used at least once each. The word "Championship" may be added to the end of the class name, but only when describing the collective set of events that make up a season.

AMA Pro VANCE & HINES XR1200

AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 is the official name of the class and should be spelled as it appears here in all primary instances. Vance & Hines XR1200 is the primary short and secondary reference. Harley-Davidson XR1200 can be used in a description of the actual motorcycle used to compete in the series, but only in identifying the motorcycle itself. Simply XR1200 can be used as a reference to the motorcycle providing Vance & Hines XR1200 and Harley-Davidson XR1200 have been used at least once each. The word "Championship" may be added to the end of the class name, but only when describing the collective set of events that make up a season.

AMA Pro RACING Logo Usage

Please see the AMA Pro Racing Logo Standards Guide for use of the AMA Pro Racing logos. This file can be found in the Competitor Information section of www.amapro racing.com.

TELEVISION COVERAGE ON SPEED

SAME-WEEKEND COVERAGE OF EVERY EVENT

SPEED™, the nation's first and only cable television network dedicated to automotive and motorcycle racing, performance and lifestyle, will once again serve as AMA Pro Road Racing's broadcast partner in 2012.

The SPEED on-air team for AMA Pro Road Racing will include veteran motorcycle broadcaster Ralph Sheheen providing play-by-play, with Motorcycle Hall of Fame rider Scott Russell joining him in the booth for analysis. Longtime SPEED reporter and host Greg White will provide reports from the pits.

SPEED will air flag-to-flag same day coverage of each AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike and AMA Pro Daytona SportBike race in 2012. Highlights of AMA Pro Motorcycle-Superstore.com SuperSport and AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 Series will be shown during the broadcasts, with additional coverage available on SPEED2.

In addition to television coverage, motorcycle editor Chris Martin and columnist Evan Williams will be providing insight and commentary from each AMA Pro event on SPEEDtv.com. To follow all of SPEEDtv.com's motorcycle coverage, please visit <http://moto-racing.speedtv.com>.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

Daytona International Speedway will once again play host to AMA Pro Road Racing as the series kicks off a new season, scheduled for March 15 – 17, 2012. The Daytona 200, the cornerstone of Daytona's historic Bike Week festivities, will feature the stars of AMA Pro Daytona SportBike on the traditional 3.51-mile, 12-turn speedway road course on Saturday afternoon, March 17.

In last year's contest, fortune was looking down upon Jason DiSalvo as the always-impressive Team Latus crew persevered during a red-flag situation to repair the No. 40 Ducati 848 and get the Batavia, N.Y. native back in the show for the race's final laps. DiSalvo didn't disappoint, taking the checkers as the sun began to set on the high banks. Blake Young's No. 79 Suzuki GSX-R1000 crossed the stripe first in both of last year's National Guard SuperBike races, setting the tone early in a season that saw Young earn seven wins. In AMA Pro SuperSport, two young international stars from Colombia garnered victories, Tomas Puerta taking the first and his teammate and eventual SuperSport West Division Champion David Gaviria capturing the second. The Vance & Hines XR1200 Series riders didn't disappoint in their debut race at the "World Center of Racing" either, putting on a thrilling show that culminated with Kyle Wyman taking his first career victory heading onto the front straight on the last lap.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

The historic, natural terrain Road Atlanta road course has a rich history in road racing and motorcycle racing with many of the legendary names posting victories at this unique 2.55-mile undulating circuit through the Georgia pines.

M1 Powersports began promoting the Big Kahuna events at Road Atlanta as part of the 1998 AMA Pro Road Racing season and the series returns to the exhilarating circuit in the hills of Braselton, Ga. for the Big Kahuna Atlanta. The track is located just 35 miles outside of Atlanta and has a rich history with AMA Pro Road Racing. The series last raced at the facility in 2010, where fans witnessed Blake Young sweep the National Guard SuperBike doubleheader weekend in dramatic fashion, while Martin Cardenas swept the Daytona SportBike doubleheader and J.D. Beach kept with the pattern by claiming both of the weekend's SuperSport race wins.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

AMA Pro Road Racing teams will make a return visit to Infineon Raceway in May but at an earlier date than in recent seasons. The series returns to the 2.32-mile circuit, which is located in the picturesque wine country of Sonoma, Ca., on the weekend of May 4 – 6, 2012. Motorcycle racing at Infineon Raceway dates back to 1969, and the area provides the perfect backdrop for the always popular West Coast Moto Jam. Josh Hayes piloted his No. 1 Monster Energy Graves Yamaha R1 to his first 2011 AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike victory in Race 1 last year, followed up by Tommy Hayden's first win on the No. 22 Suzuki GSX-R1000. In Daytona SportBike, Jason DiSalvo swept both races, as did Benny Solis in the SuperSport division. Eventual Vance & Hines XR1200 Series champion Chris Fillmore turned in his first win of the year in the division's debut at the Northern California venue. A favorite of fans and competitors alike, Infineon Raceway is a first-class facility in every respect and boasts some of the best viewing areas for spectators on the schedule.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

Tooele, Utah's Miller Motorsports Park was added back to the schedule in 2011, and America's finest motorcycle racing talent will again be showcased alongside the international standouts in World Superbike on the weekend of May 26 – 28, 2012. This particular event schedule consists of single races for each of the AMA Pro Road Racing classes. Conveniently located just 25 minutes west of Salt Lake City, this track will feature a fantastic range of activities as part of The BigM Weekend, Utah's Memorial Day tradition, mixing motorcycles, music and military. Aside from the incredible racing action that will take place, the weekend will also include live music and a major military tribute.

Last year, Blake Young grabbed victory from Josh Hayes at the line to end a thrilling AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike race. Josh Herrin took the Daytona SportBike win, Corey Alexander took his first career AMA Pro SuperSport win and Steve Rapp took the Vance & Hines XR1200 Series win.

Featuring covered grandstands, "Oasis" fan areas, and an F1-style pit and paddock complex, Miller Motorsports Park is reminiscent of many of the great tracks in Europe and beyond.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

What more can one say about Elkhart Lake's renowned Road America racetrack? This epic 4.048-mile road course winds its way through Wisconsin's beautiful Kettle Moraine country, and is one of the most legendary racetracks in the United States. The list of major champions who have raced and won at Road America reads like a who's-who of big time motorcycle and auto racing. In addition to being a fast and daunting course, Road America offers spectator viewing areas that are equally memorable, as are their infamous brats (also known as "Wisconsin Soul Food"). Many fans flock to the same areas every year, from Canada Corner to the famous Turn Five to Fireman's Hill and the Hurry Downs, each spot with its own unique perspective of this fast and flowing racetrack.

AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike star Blake Young calls Road America his home track and in recent years fans have arrived by the masses to watch the Wisconsinite swap for the lead on his Suzuki GSX-R1000. Last year, Young and Josh Hayes each took wins in the AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike class, which set the tone for the battle the duo fought all the way to the last race of the season. In Daytona SportBike, Josh Herrin took the checkers just under a second before Cory West in Saturday's race, and then pulled a repeat victory with an even closer margin in Sunday's race final, crossing the stripe just 0.092 of a second ahead of Danny Eslick. David Gaviria won his second win of the season in the first SuperSport race and then finished in second on Sunday to Travis Wyman, who scored his breakout AMA Pro SuperSport victory. The AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 Series debuted at Road America in 2010, and in last year's contest RMR/Bruce Rossmeyer Daytona Racing's Chris Fillmore continued his dominant march to the championship by taking pole position and winning the race in style.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

For the motorcycle and motorsports enthusiast, a trip to Barber Motorsports Park in Birmingham, Ala. is a must. With immaculate grounds and fan-friendly viewing areas complemented by giant art sculptures that are strategically placed throughout the facility, this is one of the most interesting tracks in the country to visit. Barber Motorsports Park is also home to the Barber Vintage Motorsports Museum, a beautifully-designed structure housing a collection of almost 750 vintage and modern motorcycles as well as a substantial collection of Lotus and other racecars.

Last year's race saw Martin Cardenas edge out Ben Bostrom by .137 seconds in AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike Race 1, while Blake Young drove home the second race win over defending National Guard SuperBike champion Josh Hayes. In Daytona SportBike, Danny Eslick won the first race over Dane Westby but lost Race 2 by .022 seconds to Josh Herrin. Benny Solis clenched victory in SuperSport Race 1 and finished second to James Rispoli in Race 2 by just .064 seconds. Steve Rapp beat Chris Fillmore to the line in the Vance & Hines XR1200 Series race by .157 seconds.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course has been a well-deserved mainstay on the American road racing scene since 1962. This year's event at Mid-Ohio, scheduled for the weekend of July 13 – 15, 2012, will mark the 30th consecutive year that the series has raced at the 2.4-mile circuit nestled in the scenic, rolling hills of Lexington, Ohio. This park-like, picturesque natural-terrain road course is one of the most accommodating facilities in the country, featuring incredible camping and spectator viewing areas situated throughout the venue's rolling Ohio countryside.

Last year, Yoshimura Suzuki teammates Blake Young and Tommy Hayden split wins at Mid-Ohio with Young taking the Saturday win over Josh Hayes by .177 seconds. On day two, Hayden took the fight to Young by winning with an even narrower margin of .120 seconds. The stars in Daytona SportBike put on two unforgettable races, with Dane Westby posting his first career AMA Pro victory over Josh Herrin by .139 seconds in race one and Danny Eslick taking the win over Tommy Aquino in race two. Dustin Dominguez put over eight seconds between himself and second-place finisher James Rispoli in Saturday's SuperSport race, but unfortunately slid out in Sunday's final, resulting in Hayden Gillim taking his breakout victory over Rispoli by just .210 seconds. Chris Fillmore won his third AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 Series race of the season, beating Michael Beck and teammate Kyle Wyman to the flag by over six seconds.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

Thrilling sprint races for AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike, Daytona SportBike and SuperSport will once again be featured alongside MotoGP as part of the Red Bull U.S. Grand Prix at Mazda Raceway Laguna Seca. The international event at the 2.238-mile natural road course in Monterey, Calif. has been pushed back one week from last year's date, scheduled for the weekend of July 27 – 29, 2012. A huge weekend for all things motorcycle road racing, Mazda Raceway is the place to be on this July weekend for fans who want to sample the very best in the sport from famous vantage points like the legendary Corkscrew or Ducati Island.

In 2011's contest, fan favorite Tommy Hayden started second on the grid but finished on top of the podium over Josh Hayes in a barn burner that many hailed as the most exciting race of the weekend. Ben Bostrom has a long history of success at Mazda Raceway Laguna Seca, previously taking wins in National Guard SuperBike (2010), Daytona SportBike (2009), SuperSport (2008), SuperBike (2004) and Formula Xtreme (2004), and was asked to pull double-duty last year by riding in both the SuperBike and MotoGP race finals. Danny Eslick won the Daytona SportBike race in 2011 by executing an incredible late-braking pass to take the lead. Last year in SuperSport, Benny Solis took his fourth win of the season ahead of Tomas Puerta.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

Known as "The Brickyard," Indianapolis Motor Speedway has had countless racing legends compete on its famous asphalt. Motorcycle racing returned to the Indianapolis Motor Speedway in 2008 after a 99-year absence with the Red Bull Indianapolis GP featuring the MotoGP World Championship. It was only fitting that a bike event would capture the imagination of IMS fans, as the very first motorized event at the Racing Capital of the World was a motorcycle race Aug. 14, 1909 on the 2.5-mile IMS oval. Now every August motorcycle enthusiasts from all over the world unite at the speedway to participate in the celebration of incredible speed and intense competition. In 2011, Indianapolis Motor Speedway invited the Harley-Davidson motorcycles of the AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 Series to take part in the Red Bull Indianapolis GP weekend and the thundering twins were featured in their first doubleheader event weekend alongside the stars of the MotoGP paddock.

With over 30 Harley-Davidson XR1200s participating in the Vance & Hines XR1200 Series debut event at IMS, thousands of fans were not disappointed when they stayed to watch and hear V-twins roar across the row of bricks at the start/finish line. Touted by many as some of the most exciting races of the weekend, Tyler O'Hara took his first win of the season in race one by .048 seconds over Steve Rapp in Saturday's final and on Sunday, Chris Fillmore was the one to edge Rapp out, crossing the line .169 seconds before him.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

Central Southern New Jersey is the home of New Jersey Motorsports Park. Featuring luxury condominiums and a magnificent club house, this 2.25-mile road course is an exceptional facility for fans and racers alike. Offering two course layouts, Thunderbolt and Lightning, the track can operate two separate events simultaneously. Battling it out on the Thunderbolt track, the stars of AMA Pro Road Racing put on an impressive 2011 weekend that began with a special track walk for fans, in which a number of the riders took the time to show fans exactly how they attack the exhausting 14 turns.

Heading into the final round of the season, Josh Hayes and Blake Young took the National Guard SuperBike title chase down to the last lap of the last race of the weekend. On Saturday, Hayes did the best he could to separate himself from Young in the points with a win in race one over Ben Bostrom. In race two, Young took the win over Hayes by .055 seconds, but the race win didn't garner Young enough points to top Hayes, who took home his second AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike Number One Plate in as many years. In Daytona SportBike, Danny Eslick locked up his second national championship by racing conservatively and finishing back in a safe sixth place as Tommy Aquino earned his much-deserved first AMA Pro Road Racing victory, and Josh Herrin held off Dane Westby by .135 seconds to claim the win in race two. SuperSport race one saw 16-year-old Garrett Gerloff score a victory in his AMA Pro Road Racing debut, and the youngster further established himself as a venerable competitor by posting a lap time during the race that would have given him the pole in the Daytona SportBike class. James Rispoli took his first AMA Pro SuperSport East and National Championship after battling with Gerloff to take the win in race two. In the XR1200 race, Chris Fillmore claimed the XR1200 National Championship by taking a win over Michael Beck.

AMA Pro Road Racing will head south after the New Jersey Motorsports Park round for the inaugural Big Kahuna Miami, scheduled for the weekend of September 21 – 23, 2012 at Homestead-Miami Speedway, which is located just 30 miles south of Miami in Homestead, Fla. As fall weather begins to draw in across the country, fans will find the Miami area a tropical oasis while being treated to an entertainment spectacle from M1 PowerSports and the stars of AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike, AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike, AMA Pro Motorcycle-Superstore.com SuperSport and the AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 Series.

Thirty miles south of the speedway lie the beautiful Florida Keys, the perfect laid-back, tropical retreat from the stresses of everyday life. Seemingly separated from the rest of the world, the Florida Keys stretch 100 miles from Key Largo to Key West and offer some of the country's best diving, fishing and beach bumming.

Heading north, fans can visit majestic downtown Miami, with beautiful skyscrapers and emporiums offering big city shopping with a cosmopolitan flair, and the legendary South Beach, which is famously filled with energetic nightlife options, celebrity sightings and beautiful people.

Two weeks after the Big Kahuna Miami at Homestead-Miami Speedway, the AMA Pro Road Racing season will come to a close at America's newest racetrack, with the Big Kahuna New Orleans scheduled for the weekend of October 5 - 7, 2012 as the first professional motorsports event to be held at NOLA Motorsports Park.

The track was designed by Alan Wilson and is located just 20 minutes from the historic French Quarter area in downtown New Orleans, La. The state-of-the-art facility features excellent areas for spectator viewing and is focused on making motorsports accessible to a broad range of enthusiasts across all facets of the motorsports community. In addition to the two international-standard race tracks, the 600+ acre park-like venue also has a world-class karting facility, an eight acre autocross pad, luxury trackside villas and a great public cafe.

When fans aren't at the track enjoying the thrilling entertainment provided by M1 PowerSports and the stars of AMA Pro Road Racing, they can explore the incredible city of New Orleans. The accommodations are plentiful, music is everywhere, the people are friendly and the food is recognized worldwide. Diverse cultural experiences range from the party scene on Bourbon Street to a quiet stroll through the historic French Quarter to an afternoon ride on a street car viewing the amazing Uptown architecture. There is something for everyone to enjoy in the Big Easy.

JOSH HAYES - 2011 AMA PRO NATIONAL GUARD SUPERBIKE CHAMPION

SEASON RECAP

Monster Energy/Graves/Yamaha rider Josh Hayes successfully defended his 2010 AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike rider championship aboard the No. 1 Yamaha YZF-R1 following a thrilling 2011 season that saw the Mississippi native finish in the Top 5 in all 14 starts. His 2011 season accolades include three race victories — Infineon Raceway Race 1, Road America Race 2 and New Jersey Motorsports Park Race 1 — and seven poles, Hayes only failing to start from the top spot at the Mid-Ohio round.

Poised to end yet another National Guard SuperBike season in dramatic fashion, Hayes was five points behind Yoshimura Suzuki's Blake Young in the rider championship points chase when the series rolled into New Jersey Motorsports Park for the final event of the season. Hayes quickly went to work at making up the deficit, earning a valuable point for winning the pole in Saturday's qualifying session and taking victory in SuperBike race one, with another bonus point added for leading the most laps. Following Saturday's contest, Hayes was up by 11 points. Should Young win Sunday's contest and collect a point for most laps led, Hayes would need to cross the line third or better to defend his title.

Hayes and Young put on a show on Sunday that will go down as one of the most exciting SuperBike races of all time, ending with Young taking the race win and Hayes finishing a safe second place. Hayes ended the season five points ahead of Young in a remarkable turnaround that is indicative of his unbeatable will to win.

DANNY ESLICK - 2011 AMA PRO DAYTONA SPORTBIKE CHAMPION

SEASON RECAP

Following a late-race crash in the season-opening Daytona 200, Danny Eslick rebounded to capture his second AMA Pro Daytona SportBike rider championship with GEICO Powersports/RMR. Eslick finished in the Top 10 aboard the No. 69 Suzuki GSX-R600 in each of the 12 starts after Daytona, grabbing three wins — Barber Motorsports Park Race 1, Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course Race 2 and Mazda Raceway Laguna Seca — and also taking home pole position at Barber Motorsports Park.

Recently, Eslick has been no stranger to AMA Pro Road Racing rider championships. The Oklahoman earned his first in 2009, the debut season of AMA Pro Daytona SportBike. He followed that up in the inaugural AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 Series season, in which he earned every pole, led every lap and won every race in his three starts with the division to take home the inaugural No. 1 plate in 2010.

Just like the AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike season, Eslick and his closest competitor, Monster Energy/Graves/Yamaha rider Josh Herrin, brought the Daytona SportBike season to a close at the last event of the 2011 season. With a conservative finish in Saturday's race, Eslick clinched the title and eventually finished 19 points over Herrin.

Having successfully won championships on three makes — Buell (2009 DSB), Harley-Davidson (2010 XR1200) and Suzuki (2011 DSB) — Eslick has proven that he is a fierce competitor in any arena.

JAMES RISPOLI - 2011 AMA PRO SUPERSPORT NATIONAL CHAMPION

NATIONAL CHAMPION, EAST DIVISION CHAMPION AND YOUNG GUN AWARD RECIPIENT

SEASON RECAP

James Rispoli wrapped up a stellar and consistent AMA Pro SuperSport season to take home the East Division Championship, National Championship and Young Gun Award aboard the No. 43 ANT-Racing/STAR School Suzuki GSX-R600.

Following an uncharacteristic seventh-place finish in Race 1 at Daytona International Speedway, Rispoli never finished off of the podium in the remainder of the season's nine races. The "Rocket" dominated two event weekends in particular, earning poles and race wins at Barber Motorsports Park and New Jersey Motorsports Park.

Rispoli, who is well-known for working hard to deliver value to his sponsors, also raced in select rounds of AMA Pro Flat Track competition in 2011, earning a Pro Singles pole at the North Central Speedway round. His multi-discipline skills and drive to win make him a threat in any form of motorcycle racing that he enters.

DAVID GAVIRIA - 2011 AMA PRO SUPERSPORT WEST CHAMPION

SEASON RECAP

David Gaviria had his AMA Pro Road Racing debut in 2010, competing a partial season as a Top Gun competitor and earning one Top 5 finish in 12 starts. The Colombian stepped up his game early in 2011, taking home third place in Race 1 and claiming victory in Race 2 at the season-opening round at Daytona International Speedway aboard the No. 700 LTD Racing Yamaha YZF-R6.

It seems that only occasional on-track race incidents can keep Gaviria off of the podium. Over the course of the 2011 season he earned six additional Top 5s — including a win in Race 1 at Road America — to finish the season atop the AMA Pro SuperSport West Division point standings.

Gaviria took home his first career AMA Pro Road Racing No. 1 Plate in his first full season of competition, and he is sure to be a formidable competitor as he rises to the AMA Pro Daytona SportBike division with LTD Racing in 2012.

CHRIS FILLMORE - 2011 AMA PRO VANCE & HINES XR1200 CHAMPION

SEASON RECAP

Chris Fillmore won his first AMA Pro Road Racing championship after a season-long battle with Steve Rapp, and yet again, the title was decided on the final day of the season. Fillmore opened his winning account at Infineon Raceway with a clean sweep of pole position, most laps led and the race win. After Fillmore's dramatic second win at Road America, Steve Rapp pulled off a clean sweep of the weekend at Barber Motorsports Park in Ala., setting the tone for the ensuing championship battle. Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course was the next stop for the series and Fillmore not only dominated the Vance & Hines XR1200 race, he made his AMA Pro National Guard SuperBike series debut and joined Steve Rapp in double-duty action. At the historic first trip to Indianapolis Motor Speedway, the championship battle continued to heat up. In the first race of the doubleheader weekend, an incident between Fillmore, Rapp and Jeremy McWilliams resulted in Fillmore going down hard, cutting his points gap over Rapp to just six. On Sunday, Fillmore took over and ran a determined race to victory. With the Championship still up in the air at the Series' finale, Fillmore continued on his determined march, taking pole position, leading the most laps and winning the race to earn every possible Championship point and the coveted No. 1 Plate.
